Here's a concise overview of what it offers:

Size: The property spans 1.7131 hectares.

Water Supply: The property benefits from having a borehole, ensuring a reliable water source.

Grazing Camps: There are three grazing camps, which are likely suitable for livestock farming or agricultural purposes.

House One: This house is constructed with face brick and features a lounge, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms, one bathroom, a laundry room, and a garage. It operates on a pre-paid electricity system and has access to borehole water.

House Two: The second house is a painted house and includes one bedroom, one bathroom, a kitchen, a lounge, and a carport. Like the first house, it also operates on pre-paid electricity and has access to borehole water.

Tenanted: Both houses are currently tenanted, which could provide...
